Advisory Circular

Subject: ANNOUNCEMENT OF AVAILABILITY: FLIGHT STANDARDS SERVICE AIRMAN
TESTING AND TRAINING INFORMATION

Date: 2/26/97
Initiated by: AFS-630

AC No: 60-26A
Change:

1. PURPOSE. This advisory circular provides updated information on airman testing and training materials available on the FedWorld electronic bulletin board system. The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Flight Standards Service sector of FedWorld contains airman certification knowledge and skill testing information critical to flight safety.

2. CANCELLATION. Advisory Circular (AC) 60-26, ANNOUNCEMENT OF AVAILABILITY: Flight Standards Service Airman Testing and Training Information, dated 4/18/96, is canceled.

3. BACKGROUND. The Regulatory Support Division, AFS-600, has an agreement to provide information on FedWorld through the National Technical Information Service (NTIS), an agency of the U.S. Department of Commerce. There is no charge for the public to access this bulletin board. However, normal long-distance telephone connect charges will be the responsibility of the public.

4. INFORMATION.

a. The FedWorld Information System may be accessed by computer modem at 703-321-3339. It may also be accessed on the Internet at <http://www.fedworld.gov/pub/faa-att/faa-att.htm>. This address goes to the index of training and testing files in the FAA-ATT Library on FedWorld. The listing of Flight Standards Service airman information maintained in the FedWorld Information System is available by reviewing the file 00-INDEX.TXT in the FAA-ATT Library.

(1) The system contains the Knowledge Test Guides which describe FAA knowledge testing policy and procedures; airman knowledge question banks representative of questions for airman knowledge tests; and the subject matter codes listing which depicts specific references from which tests are developed.

(2) The system contains the Practical Test Standards which outline the skill test for each airman certificate and rating. The references listed in each task of the practical test standards indicate the specific publications used to develop the skill standards.

b. This information is useful to those airman students and their instructors in preparing for airman certification testing. This information comprises the FAA's standards for airman certification testing.

5. RESPONSIBILITY. AFS-600 is the primary office of responsibility for the airman information located in the FAA-ATT Library, and will ensure the information maintained is timely and accurate.
